DEDICATION.

This history is dedicated to the immense Geil family, who are interested in this work, and who manifested a very active part in furnishing me with much valuable information.

These contributions are legion, and for their efficient work many thanks are due. Among the oldest now living, who was greatly interested in this history, and who furnished many points of interest, was my brother-in-law, Jacob Geil, Sr., of Edom, Rockingham Co., Va. (See No. 47.)

GEIL HISTORY FOR SALE.

The Geil Family History is on sale at $1.40 per copy, postpaid. Send all orders and money to Joseph H. Wenger, South English, Iowa, or to David S. Geil, South English, Iowa.

P. S. Please lose no time in ordering books, as the edition may become exhausted. All parents should see that each one of their children is supplied with a copy, to be handed down to coming generations.

EXPLANATION.

No. 10 means the tenth family recorded.

Third generation means the third step from the ancestor down.

The figure 8, following the word "generation," refers to No. 8, where the parents are found; as, 1-2-3, etc., which indicates the order of their birth in the family from which they came.

After the name and date of birth comes, for instance, No. 30, which indicates where the family of children is recorded farther on.

For example, take some of your best-known relatives, use numbers, paying no attention to pages.

PREFACE.

The adage, "Many men have many minds," is a fact which dates beyond the memory of man.

For the subject at issue we will consider the eagerness of the stockman to fully and without blemish have all his stock recorded and numbered in a lawful way; and yet many people, careful in such matters, will neglect the nativity and general points of their own ancestors. The truth of this is manifested in millions of people, who are more interested in pure-bred stock (all for the sake of the mighty dollar), than in the knowledge of our Christian ancestors, who left the old country because of religious persecution. These ancestors paved the way for our spiritual and financial prosperity.

Reader, please wipe the tears from your eyes, provided you have sympathy enough to produce any, and think of the benevolence of your hard-working Christian ancestors. Some, especially the ungodly, perhaps seldom, if ever, entertain a thought of thankfulness to their noble progenitors who cared for them, much less to the God who created and preserved them. These facts can not be denied.

The writer is historically inclined. He has completed three family histories, in each of which there is some reference to the Geil family. This created a desire on the part of David S. Geil, of this place, and other Geils, for a history. They urged the writer into the work.

Your humble servant, at the age of 77 years, promised to do what he could and to leave the remainder for David S. and others to complete.

We must not fail to give due credit to Jacob Geil, Sr., of Edom, Rockingham Co., Va., now past 84 years of age, for some of the points concerning his ancestors. These facts would soon have been lost forever. How very important, then, that data for these genealogies be properly secured before it is too late.

The Geils are very numerous. They are scattered over America, some even residing in foreign lands.

The writer is personally acquainted with many of them, who have married into my relationship. These include the Wengers and Beerys. (My mother was a Beery.)

The Geils are a fine people and yet, as in many families, there is an occasional "black sheep" among them; surely this is not uncommon, even in the best of families.

The writer has often thought it would be interesting to have a genealogy extending from Adam and Eve, noting all points of importance down to the present time. Would it be interesting? Yes, and no. The objectionable part might lead us through dark deeds that would cause us to shudder. We do not know what some of our ancestors did during the long, dark ages. We do not know whether or not some of them were heathens, cannibals, cutthroats, Arabs, Jews, or Gentiles. But one thing we do know, and we are proud of it, that those of our ancestors who came to America did so in order to escape from inhuman persecution because of their religious doctrines. They came to America, where they enjoyed religious liberty.

May the reader, then, refer to the history of the martyrs when they consider that we are in gospel America. The moral comes to us. As an enlightened people, do we at all times live up to our knowledge and opportunities?

As the Geil ancestry comes from Germany it may be interesting to the English-speaking part of the Geil families to note that the word "Geil," in German, means "horses" in English; while the familiar name of "Gowl" means "horse."

The mother of the David S. Geil previously mentioned was a Wenger and a first cousin to the writer, while David S.'s wife is my grandniece. Jacob Geil, Sr., aged 84 years, married my sister, Mary Wenger, who occupied the old home farm where the writer was born, at Edom, Rockingham Co., Va., Nov. 15, 1835.

Religious persecution and political oppression brought millions to America, and from 1682 to 1776 Pennsylvania was the central point of emigration from Germany, Switzerland and other countries. Penn's liberal views, and the friendly attitude of the government of Pennsylvania and New York toward them, induced them to come to this colonial province.

From 1700 to 1730 the influx was so great as to attract public attention. As it was found that these harmless people were a source of much benefit to the new country, objections to their presence were withdrawn. They were those of whom Governor Thomas, of Pennsylvania, in 1738 said: "This province has for some years been the asylum for the distressed Protestants of Germany and Switzerland." I verily believe it may truthfully be said that the present flourishing condition of America is due to the economy and industry of these harmless and law-abiding people.

The pioneers and their descendants braved the dangers incident to life in the wilderness among wild beasts and savage Indians. They had, also, to endure many inconveniences of pioneer life.

For instance, they had the plow with the wooden mould board; harness made of hickory withes; wagon wheels made of cut blocks, and without tires; the hoe and the reap hook. These few things constituted their farming outfit.

The log cabins were constructed without perhaps a single nail, and if the building had any window, greased paper or skins were used instead of glass. There were no cook stoves, no sewing machines, no pianos, no fine clothing nor ruffles. These humble people had no opportunity to get such luxuries; neither did they want them.

The men were engaged in clearing the forest and tilling their small fields, while the women found employment, not only about their household duties, but in operating the hemp and flax break, the spinning wheel and the loom, which produced the linsey and tow linen that clothed the young men and maidens when they appeared at the marriage altar.

Their plain, healthful diet alternated something like this:

Milk and mush for supper, and Mush and milk for breakfast.

All these things made history long before the "dude" was born, and before the existence of the tramp, the pick-pocket, the grafter, the robber and the murderer. What a contrast the present affords with the period nearly 200 years ago! Religious persecutions and political oppressions brought millions to America, and from 1682 to 1776 Pennsylvania was the central point of rescue.

Is there any question in your mind, dear reader, as to what your condition would have been had our ancestors remained in tyrannical lands, instead of making it possible for us to enjoy the prosperity of American liberty?

May we, in thankfulness, aspire to everything that is worthy of Christian honor and good, and may we never forsake the virtues of our aged parents and other ancestors and bring shame and reproach upon an honored name.

South English, Iowa.

JOSEPH H. WENGER.

GEIL HISTORY

No. 1. First Generation.

1) J. Conrad Geil, the subject of this sketch and the progenitor of this vast Geil family, was born ——, and emigrated from Amsterdam, east from Portsmouth, to America on the ship "John and Elizabeth." The crew was composed of inhabitants from Hanan, Württemberg, and the Palatinate in Germany. Of the passengers there were eleven Roman Catholics and 120 Protestants, the total number of passengers being 330. They arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 7, 1754. The above is gathered from "Rupps History," page 346, containing 30,000 names of emigrants who registered at Philadelphia in colonial times, from 1600 to 1800. All other evidences concerning any dates and points or information concerning J. Conrad Geil are missing, except that he had a son, Jacob Geil, from whom come the descendants mentioned in this entire Geil History.

1) Jacob Geil, born in Germany in 1746. No. 2.

Note.—Whether J. Conrad Geil had other children, besides the above Jacob, could not be ascertained, but be it known that search was made for every possible point, regardless of efforts and expense.

No. 2. Second Generation. 1.

1) Jacob Geil, the only son of J. Conrad Geil, of whom we have any knowledge, was born in Alsace, Germany, near the Rhine, in 1746, and at the age of 8 years, with his father, he emigrated to Pennsylvania in 1754. About the year 1767 he married a Miss Clymer* and settled in Chester Co., Pa. Here they lived during the Revolutionary War, after which they moved to Rockingham

*See note on page 12.

Co., Va., near Bowmans Mill, now (1912) owned by Mr. Clark, one and one-half miles south of Broadway, Rockingham Co., Va., in the noted Shenandoah Valley. Here Mr. Geil bought 500 acres of land of David Brenneman, situated on Linville Creek, the deed bearing date of May 23, 1783. Here he lived, dying in 1794. He was buried on his old home farm, where, in June, 1913, a new tombstone was erected over his grave, which is in a private old family cemetery, containing only a few graves.*

It seems that Mr. Geil's first family of children came with their father to Virginia, where some of them married and lived, but after the father's death in Virginia they went to Pennsylvania, many of them settling around Doylestown, Bucks Co., Pa., which for a time (say from 1775 to 1885) was flooded with Geils; but I am informed that now (1912) only one is found in Bucks County in the person of Rev. William Edgar Geil, of Doylestown. He is a noted evangelist, who has traveled in many parts of the world. (See No. 560½.) Jacob Geil was a Mennonite, and it is said that his four wives were members.

For a number of generations the old Geil families were Mennonites, and multitudes of them still adhere to that church.

8. Phillip Geil, b. ———. No. 10.
9. Rebecca Geil, b. ———. No. 11.

*Mr. Geil was married four times. His first wife was Miss Clymer, from whom comes the name Clemmer. His second wife was Miss Fly; third wife, name unknown; fourth wife, Miss Trissel. Mr. Geil's last years were spent in the vicinity of Trissel's Mennonite church, near Broadway, Va., perhaps about twelve miles north of Harrisonburg. Tombstone inscription: In Memory of Jacob Geil, Born in Germany in 1746. Died in 1794. Buried near Broadway, Rockingham Co., Va., on the farm now (1913) owned by R. S. Clark.

The above last six children may not be in rotation of births as I do not have them at present. I may secure them later.

No. 3. Third Generation. 2.

1) Abraham Geil, born in Pennsylvania, May 25, 1769, died Feb. 15, 1830. Mary Garges, born March 29, 1774, died ———. Married Sept. 17, 1795. Mennonites; weaver by occupation; Bucks Co., Pa. Mr. Geil, at the age of 14 years (1783), with his father, Jacob Geil, moved from Pennsylvania to Rockingham Co., Va. Abraham Geil, at the age of twenty-six years returned to Doylestown, Bucks Co., Pa., where he married, as above stated, and there spent the remainder of his life. It is said that Abraham Geil and his brothers were stalwart, robust men, filled with the spirit of "Young America" and of business. After maturity they returned to Pennsylvania, where they remained. Mennonites.

No. 4. Third Generation. 2.

2) Jacob Geil, born in Pennsylvania, April 16, 1771, died May 21, 1844. Elizabeth Beery, born in Rockingham Co., Va., April 11, 1771, died April 19, 1856, near Bremen, Fairfield Co., Ohio. Another report says that Jacob Geil died May 21, 1840. They were married in 1784 or 1785. I am informed that the record of these Geil families was destroyed during the burning of their home; hence some of the data are difficult to obtain. For this reason those children who have no dates of birth may not be placed in proper rotation. Bremen, Fairfield Co., Ohio. Mennonite minister.

3) Susan Geil, born in Pennsylvania in 1773, died in Rockingham Co., Va., Dec. 14, 1859. Buried at Trissel's church. Christian Funk,* born in Pennsylvania, Feb. 9, 1763, died suddenly in Rockingham Co., Va., after singing a hymn, in the summer of 1853. They were married ———. They were Mennonites. Mr. Funk was a farmer, and also manufacturer of the old-fashioned sickle or reap hook, that supplied the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia from early date to the time of his death. They lived north of Harrisonburg, Va., and west of (now) Broadway.

4) Nancy Geil, born in Pennsylvania, in April, 1775, of German ancestry, died Nov. 9, 1850. Jacob Beery, born in Rockingham Co., Va., in 1766, died near McCutchenville, Wyandot Co., Ohio, Feb. 12, 1842; married in 1795. In a few years (1803) after their marriage in Virginia they emigrated to Fairfield Co., Ohio, and settled in the woods near where Berne Station now is; about four miles east of Lancaster, where they opened a fine farm, now owned by Frank Beery, son of Lewis, deceased.

In 1832 this worthy family moved to near McCutchenville, Wyandot Co., Ohio, where they invested largely in government land, and accumulated a large fortune. They were a hearty, robust couple, as evidenced by their posterity, who were a matter-of-fact people. McCutchenville, Ohio.

5) John Geil, born April 9, 1778, in New Britain Township, near Doylestown, Bucks Co., Pa., on a farm once owned by Isaac Godshall, a Mennonite minister, and later, in 1897, by Nathan Price. Mr. Geil died at Line Lexington, Bucks Co., Pa., Jan. 16, 1866. Elizabeth Fretz, born in Bucks County, Jan. 27, 1781, died Nov. 6, 1849; married April 22, 1802. John Geil was ordained to the ministry in the Mennonite church at Line Lexington, between 1809 and 1811, and served the church faithfully for fifty-five years. He manifested an uncommon power of mind, which so ably fitted him for the position. In many ways he was a very remarkable man; tall in stature and well-proportioned; had a pleasant disposition; modest in his speech, and always looked at the bright side of things. He was not an aspirant for wealth, and yet the Lord blessed him with temporal abundance.

Mr. Geil lived on a farm near the Fretz Mill in New Britain Township, Bucks County, in a commodious two-story stone farmhouse. There were stone fences on the farm. Mr. Geil's natural abilities were great. He possessed no special educational advantages. In fact in his day, these were few and far apart. Although he attended school only six weeks in his life, he so well acquired the German and English languages that he was often called upon to write wills, mortgages, and public documents, and settle up estates.

Some of the ministers of the present (1912) write their sermons, or still worse, copy them from books, etc., of "high-toned" ministers. Not so with Mr. Geil. He always was ready for a sermon without the presence of the Bible or any preparation. He was a noble Christian man, whom all would do well to imitate.

A short while before his death he preached a powerful farewell sermon to his congregation. He died at the ripe old age of 87 years, 9 months and 7 days.

2) John Geil, born near Doylestown, Bucks Co., Pa., Jan. 22, 1799, died in Rockingham Co., Va., Oct. 9, 1889. Mary Driver, born June 3, 1804, died Oct. 22, 1851. Married Aug. 27, 1822. The subject of this sketch faithfully served on his father's farm at Doylestown, Bucks Co., Pa., until he arrived at the age of 21 years, after which in 1820 he came to Rockingham Co., Va., and worked for his uncle, Christian Funk, near where Broadway, Va., is now located. He worked several years at blacksmithing and the manufacture of the old fashioned sickles (reap hooks) which was the only mode of cutting wheat, so customary in 1800 and previous. After marriage in 1822 he followed blacksmithing three miles south of New Market, Va., until 1827, when he moved on a farm four miles west of New Market in the vicinity of what at that time was called the "Marsh," where he spent the remainder of his life. He died Oct. 19, 1889, aged 90 years, 8 months and 27 days. He was a large, stalwart man and the writer thinks that no better man ever lived than Grandfather John Geil. He and wife united with the Mennonite church soon after marriage. He was ordained to the ministry in ——— and to the office of bishop in 1859. The next sixty-one families are his descendants. J. H. W.

1. Samuel Wenger born near New Market, Va. June 12, 1823. died in Montgomery, Mo. Feb. 3, 1892. Abraham Wenger, son of an Elder, Rockingham Co., Va. May 31, 1825. died near Versailles, Morgan Co., Mo., March 21, 1870. Married Sarah W. 1848. They moved from near Melrose, Rockingham Co., Va. to the above place April, 1869. Mr. Wenger was a brother to the author of this history. He was a very stout, hearty, robust man but death called him at the age of 45. It seems that his industry in a mechanical way was inexhaustible. While enjoying a good home in Missouri and at the height of prosperity he was called to the world beyond where he was so much needed with his young family. Yet through the noble Christian efforts of Mrs. Wenger she raised a fine prosperous family who are among our best citizens. Abraham Wenger was endowed with kindness and hospitality. He was a noble man. In early life he and his wife united with the Mennonite Church, while yet in Virginia. Farmer and mechanic. Versailles, Mo. J. F. W.

1) John Henry Geil, born near Edom, Va., Aug. 4, 1850, is said to have died Aug. 4, 1908, at Lawrenceville, Va., in rather a mysterious way. Elizabeth C. Chalfant, born near New Salem, Fairfield Co., Ohio, Dec. 2, 1849. Married near Thornville, Perry Co., Ohio, Feb. 18, 1877. Of this marriage was born one son as follows:

1. Orrien G. Geil, b. Dec. 27, 1877. No. 694.

The above John Henry Geil left his wife two months after marriage and she never saw him afterwards. He, a very short time later, married Kate Tyler some place in the North, in the latter part of 1877, by whom he had four children. Paul Geil, Lula Geil, John Geil, and Ethel Geil. In about 1895 the father deserted his second wife and married his third wife, Margaret ——, in Orange, Va. This was about a year before his mysterious death at his own hands. His death and especially his burial is considered a suspicious mystery among all who knew him. He belonged to about all the secret orders in existence.

*Fannie Geil Miller's descendants reach to No. 176.

Farmer. North Berne, Fairfield Co., Ohio. For sociability and industry Fannie (Geil) Miller was a model woman. She well understood and experienced the pioneer customs of life a hundred years ago, when women not only did the housework but farm work as well. When a grown young woman she did much work for her neighbors, reaping grain with the old fashioned reap hook, spinning wool and flax, and weaving; serving sixteen hours per day at thirty-seven and one-half cents per week. Reader, compare this with the customs of today.

This ends the Fannie (Geil) Miller descendants. It seems that the Millers are very prolific in all countries. I once heard that, ages ago, names became exhausted and therefore all babies were called Millers, but here is a more plausible reason. In all nationalities and languages, a man who tends a mill is called a miller. Hence the many Millers. J. H. W.

5) Henry H. Good, born in Rockingham Co., Va., Jan. 19, 1850, died Oct. 10, 1908. Married Susan Pressler, of Lancaster Co., Pa., Jan. 29, 1871. Mennonite minister. Wolf Trap, Va.

Mr. Good was ordained to the Mennonite ministry in Allen Co., Ohio, in the autumn of 1880 and served in the ministry for twenty-eight years, until his death, which occurred at Wolf Trap, Halifax Co., Va. The writer has known Mr. Good from boyhood in Rockingham Co., Va. I can vouch for his faithful mission in the church and out of it. He was endowed with meekness and humility, without which, Christianity is not complete. He was much interested in church work and the salvation of his children.

- 1) Nicholas Beery (whose mother was Nancy Geil) was born in Rockingham Co., Va., in 1796, and came with his parents to Fairfield Co., Ohio, in 1803. He never married. Later he came with his parents to Wyandot Co., Ohio, in 1834. His occupation was buying horses in Ohio and traveling them through the mountains to Virginia, where he sold them at great profit; often he would sell them on time among his old friends. In 1848 he left Wyandot Co., Ohio, on foot to go to Virginia intending to collect a large sum of money due him for horses previously sold. He was advised not to take such a journey through the mountains on foot. It was a distance of 500 miles and it was predicted that some one would murder him for his money. Despite his friends' protests he started, going by the way of Fairfield Co., Ohio, and was last seen by acquaintances at that place. He never returned to Ohio, and hence the conclusion that the above prediction was verified. His untimely death will perhaps always remain a mystery.

2) Abraham D. Beery, son of Nancy (Geil) Beery, born in Rockingham Co., Va., July 29, 1798. Came with his parents to Fairfield Co., Ohio, in 1803, at which place, in 1820, he married Annie Blosser, also a native of Virginia. She was born Feb. 24, 1798. Mr. Beery was placed in the ministry in the Brethren in Christ church July 24, 1830, in Logan Co., Ohio. He was instantly killed by falling from a load of flax, and was buried in the Miller cemetery six miles northwest of Logan, Ohio. His widow moved to Adams Co., Ind., and died in 1861.

Mrs. Beery has been a valuable helpmate in the home and church. They own and live on a fine farm with modern improvements. In Mr. Beery's early life he was known among his friends as "Honest John," on account of his strict integrity in business. He is, in a measure, a self-made man, and yet he possesses the intelligence of a college professor. In his official capacity, as justice of the peace, his ruling was to get the opposing parties to arbitrate by meeting each other half ways. In one case of contest, where $40 were involved, he got his parties within $2.50 of reaching a settlement, but no farther. Then Mr. Beery proposed to pay it himself and discharge the case, which he did. So for conscience' sake, the man to whom Mr. Beery paid the money, returned it the next day. Mr. Beery was very charitable to the needy. He, at the age of eighteen years, united with the M. E. church. St. Louis, Gratiot Co., Mich.

The following is what I chanced to get of Wm. E. Geil, under No. 560: He was born at Doylestown, Pa., Oct. 1, 1865. Married Miss Emerson, of Titusville, Pa., June, 1912. Mr. Geil, like the majority of the Geil ancestors, is a tall, stalwart, muscular man, and has a bold, vigorous, incisive style. He is accomplished in oration and is full of wit, like his grandfather, John Geil (see No. 7). So, Mr. W. E. Geil, with his thorough education, is now known by American and foreign nations of the world to outstrip any orator yet produced. He has traveled as a missionary-evangelist, not only in America, but in all nations of the earth—approximately 250,000 miles, or a distance equivalent to ten times around the world. He has lectured and preached to all nationalities, from the humble Americans to the Cannibals of New Guinea, and the Pigmies of the African forests. His audiences sometimes numbered six or eight thousand. Livingstone and Stanley did much for science and civilization, but Dr. Geil's researches have taken wider range. He has written an extensive history of his travels. 400 pages, price $5.00. Address, Wm. E. Geil, Doylestown, Bucks Co., Pa. Baptist minister.

Mr. Heatwole was ordained a minister in the Mennonite church June 26, 1887, and to the office of bishop May 2, 1892. He is thoroughly educated and is a deep thinker and an efficient expounder of Holy Writ. He does not make any display of his education and is noted for meekness and humility, which traits are so very important in any person. He is an able counsellor and is of sterling worth to the church and his community. He has for twenty-five years been a weather bureau observer and astronomer, and also an almanac calculator for the United States and Canada. He was the inventor of the improved new method of almanacs. He has written many books and publications.

VALEDICTION OR FAREWELL REMARKS.

The author of this History was born at Edom, Rockingham Co., Va., Nov. 15, 1835, and on account of the Civil War came to South English, Iowa, Sept. 13, 1861—52 years ago, where he still resides. He and wife retired from active farm life and business in 1896, and traveled extensively. At intervals he devoted much time in compiling family histories and genealogies in which he was greatly interested, and seemed to be in his proper element when at that kind of work. His education was very limited; his school facilities in early days were few and far between; therefore home study at every spare moment was the only substitute.

His historical work is not crowned with fluency and polish compared with writers of modern education. The aim was to note points and facts that have occurred two hundred or more years ago, in Germany and Switzerland and Colonial America, and also as America is today.

In 1903 he completed the Wenger history of 834 families, 259 pages, price reduced to $1.10 per copy.

In 1905 the Abraham Beery History of 1063 families, 328 pages, price reduced to $1.10 per copy.

(The author's mother was a Beery.)

In 1911 he produced the Nicholas Beery History of 1471 families and 496 pages, price reduced to $1.25, all postpaid.

These two Beerys were brothers and were born in Switzerland in 1718 and 1707 respectively.

It was through the urgent request of the various family relations that he consented to undertake the work of each genealogy.

The Wengers, Beerys and Geils were miscellaneously mixed up in marriage. In this Geil history there were a few who could not be found; also a few who failed to report; hence a few links are missing; but it is not the fault of the author, who left no stones unturned under which he thought there was any history.

Now at the age of nearly 78 years he lays down his faithful historical pen and leaves the result of this unpolished work to the public.

He hopes that in this work he has entertained many of the Geil descendants who had not the remotest idea of their vast relationship. But can any of you readers imagine the amount of work and perplexities connected with the search for this vast relationship?

Yours, Etc.,

Joseph H. Wenger,

July 18, 1913.

South English, Iowa.

GENERAL INDEX OF THE GEIL HISTORY.

The first mentioned names are those who are in direct relation with the Geil lineage. You can determine whom you want by the name of the marriage partner.

The left hand column of numbers, or figures, shows the number of the generation.

The right hand column of numbers or figures show the corresponding number under which each name is recorded.

Use numbers of families, pay no attention to pages.

Experiment on numbers of your nearest relations.
